

High Performance Macromolecular Crystallography Beamline (MX3)

The first three shipments of the MX3 Radiation shielding hutches arrived on site from Germany late July. Hutches A and B were recently completed during the August shutdown period, well ahead of schedule. Insulation panels for hutch C are currently on-route, and completion is on track for late November.